

79th Street Vertical Clearance

Chicago, IL

Trice Construction Company is a rapid response contractor performing restoration work for water main upgrades for the City of Chicago Department of Water Management. Work includes furnishing all labor, material and equipment required to complete miscellaneous concrete work to restore streets and parkways after installation of new water mains or sewer mains.

Trice prides itself on keeping traffic congestion to a minimum while maintaining traffic flow and safe foot traffic access in residential areas.

Owner:

City of Chicago Department of Water Management

Prime Contractor:

Bigane Paving